The feature, called grammar suggestions, will be available first for G Suite business accounts before a wider availability for all Google Docs users later this year, and Google said that its grammar tool is powered entirely by artificial intelligence.. For many people, one greatest benefit of using Google service is its Google Docs, the web-based tool allowing users to create and edit document, datasheets, presentations, images, etc.. Like its competitors, Google's new grammar tool recognizes grammatical errors as you type and offers helpful suggestions, similar to how the spellchecker works in Google Docs. 34bbb28f04
